Council Portfolio Updates:

Council President Scott Carpenter:

- The first responder picnic is a go for September 27
- Fire Department – met with Paul Phillips as part of GDP plan

Councilwoman Carmen Cefolo-Pane:

- Planning Board: Few changes in tenancy; Rock GW wants solar canopies
- Board of Adjustment: Appointment tonight; alternate member moving up to a regular member

Councilman Charles Malone:

- Elm Street Recreation Fields almost done and working toward the Grand Opening tomorrow. These fields will take Florham Park to a new level in the sporting community.
- Appointing John Timmons as Director of Parks and Recreation
- Athletic Foundation received a raffle license; look for some raffles to come

Councilman Thomas Michalowski:

- New Health Office Jackie Bordini
- Correale goal for the year is to have food establishments inspected once a year and high risk places twice a year.
Flu Vaccine – Not doing flu clinic – will have shots for EMS workers, Scott Carpenter will get the number

PRIVILEGE OF THE FLOOR:

Mayor Taylor opened the meeting to the public for questions and comments.

John Winters, Brooklake Road

Mr. Winters asked if anything specific was being done around the ball fields on Elm Street to control traffic.

Councilman Malone stated two new LED signs & speed limit signs are being posted

Police Chief Montuore stated that they are putting more controls there and a study is being done to assess the traffic situation on that street.

Seeing no more members of the public who wished to be heard, Mayor Taylor closed the meeting to the public.

ADJOURNMENT:

At 6:50 p.m., on a motion made by Councilwoman Cefolo-Pane, seconded by Councilman Malone, the work session was adjourned by a unanimous vote.

Respectfully submitted,

Sheila A. Williams, R.M.C.
